Observing/collecting information

What do I know about this child, including:

- current knowledge skills and abilities
- strengths and interests culture?
- How is information gathered on children? Is there evidence of this?
- How does the information add value to outcomes for the children?
- How do I ensure that my observations are meaningful and more than just a description of what children are doing or have done?
- How can I ensure that the information is relevant to individual children and reflects the whole child?
- Where is the information that I collect documented?

REFLECY

• What formats do I use? Do they capture the essential information?

OBSERVE

Reflecting/evaluating

How effective, meaningful and relevant were the:

- observations and analysis
- responsive and intentional teaching - planned program?
- How do my reflections give a picture of the whole child?
- How do they inform practice changes?
- How is the evaluation more than sharing how the children did or didn't enjoy the experience?

Implementing

How will I use the curriculum to support children's learning and wellbeing, including routines, transitions, interactions, indoor and outdoor environments, group projects and investigations?

- Do I ensure program learning opportunities by using all aspects of the day?
- Is this visible?
- How does it reflect play-based learning?
- How does it allow for children's agency and choices?
- How is it visible in the learning spaces so that children can engage with it?

THE PLANNING CYCLE

NYTA

Are there any gaps?

SWSTOWI

- What do I need in order to improve?
- Where are the clear links throughout the cycle?

Analysing learning

What does the information tell me about what and how the child is learning?

- Where can this be found in my documentation?
- Do I address the 'what', 'why' and 'how' children are learning it?
- How does this link to the Approved Learning Frameworks?

Planning

What are my intentions for furthering learning and development? What strategies and experiences will I provide?

- When do I plan?
- How do I plan?
- Is the planning visible?
- Is it responsive to the children's interests, abilities and strengths?
- How do I design and plan learning experiences and learning environments?
- How are the resources decided upon?
